

The public owns the airwaves and gives broadcasters permission to use them. Sinclair does not have the right to use them as a propaganda tool to further the interests of any singular issue or partisan political group. If Sinclair is allowed to use the public's airwaves to broadcast one sided issues, not with standing that the topic at hand is not based on proven fact; how will we as Americans ever be able to trust the news?